From Fulcrum's Leadership

Welcome to the 20th Anniversary Celebration of Light! We are so excited to be celebrating this momentous occasion with all of you at T-Mobile Park! It has been a long time since we've been able to gather in person and we are thrilled to be with you all again.

When it was founded in 2002, Fulcrum's goal was to assist struggling Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of Seattle and create a pathway of access for the underserved families who dreamt of a Catholic education for their children.

Twenty years later, Fulcrum has disbursed more than $65 million in funds for Catholic education, making an immeasurable impact on the lives of so many students in Catholic schools. Tonight, we plan to announce the wrap-up of the Uplift capital campaign, a 7-year fundraising effort that has succeeded beyond our wildest dreams.

We are also honoring the incredible efforts of all Catholic school teachers and staff with the 2022 Archbishop's Award. Throughout the pandemic, these heroes have worked tirelessly on the frontlines to keep students safe and engaged in learning, whether they were in school or at home. These hardworking administrators, teachers, and staff are the backbone of our Catholic schools, and we cannot thank them enough for all they have done.

Fulcrum's story—and the story of Catholic education in Western Washington—has been one of great generosity and hope. All of this is thanks to you, the very people sitting in this ballpark tonight. Thank you to every donor, to all the board and committee members both past and present, and to the Fulcrum staff who have supported this foundation and helped us grow over the last 20 years.

You have made families' dreams for their children come true. And as we pursue our vision for the next 20 years, we know we will soar to even greater heights in the service of our faith, our families, and our community.

God Bless,

Tony Audino

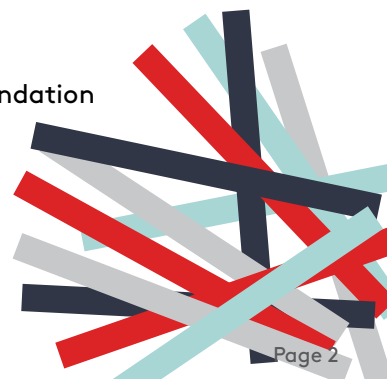

Chair of the Board and Founding Board Member, Fulcrum Foundation

Vivian K. Shannon

Executive Director, Fulcrum Foundation

Fulcrum's Vision

Guided by Catholic values and beliefs, we envision a world where vibrant and innovative Catholic schools offer hope and pursue the common good.

Emcee

MALCOLM NELSON has been a part of archdiocesan Catholic schools since he was a newborn, being baptized at St. Therese Catholic Church. He had a goal since he was a 10-year-old student at St. Therese Catholic Academy in Seattle's Madrona Neighborhood to become a teacher and administrator at Saint T's—the place where he fell in love with the power and beauty of Catholic education. Malcolm went on to O'Dea High School. Since graduating from Washington State University with his B.A. in Human Development, his love for teaching continued as he pursued his master's in teaching from University of Portland. Malcolm has been serving the students of Western Washington in education for more than eight years in the Archdiocese of Seattle. Throughout his professional career, Malcolm has partnered with the Fulcrum Foundation to become a GRACE (Guiding Regionally, Advancing Catholic Education) teacher-leader and participated in the Leadership Academy. Malcolm recently graduated from the University of Notre Dame's Mary Ann Remick Leadership Program, achieving his Master of Arts in Educational Leadership. Serendipitously, Malcolm became a student of his co-emcee, Dr. Martine Romero, at Notre Dame! Malcolm currently serves as the director of student activities and community engagement at St. Therese Catholic Academy and will be co-principal at St. Therese this fall, leading the way into the future, where it all began as a dream of a 10-year-old student.

Emcee

MARTINE ROMERO, ED.D., grew up in California attending St. Mark Catholic Elementary School in Venice and Notre Dame Academy in West L.A. where she witnessed the impact of Catholic schools through the teaching career of her mom. Zag nation brought Martine to Washington where she graduated from Gonzaga University with her teaching certificate and B.A. in special education, early childhood special education, and a certificate in organizational leadership studies. Martine became a 2nd grade teacher in 2010 at St. Madeleine Sophie School in Bellevue. She eventually moved into administration at St. Madeleine Sophie and, with the support of the Fulcrum Foundation, she earned her graduate degree at the University of Notre Dame in 2015, receiving her Master of Arts in Educational Leadership, which led to becoming the principal at St. Madeleine Sophie school in 2018. Educational excellence and leadership didn't stop there for Martine. She completed her Doctor of Educational Leadership at Gonzaga University in 2020. Martine serves on the board of directors for Special Olympics Washington and teaches remotely as an adjunct instructor with the Mary Ann Remick Leadership Program at the University of Notre Dame, sharing her passion for Catholic education and leadership with the country's top educators on a national level.

Transformational Leaders

Tonight, we are thrilled to announce the end of Uplift: The Fulcrum Campaign for Catholic Education. This seven-year endeavor would not have been possible without the hard work and determination of our campaign chairs and steering committee. Above all, we are grateful to all the generous donors who have stretched and given from their hearts to support families, schools, and educators throughout Western Washington. Uplift donors have made an immeasurable impact on Catholic education for generations to come.

Thank you for your generous spirit during this generational fundraising endeavor!

In 2015, Fulcrum and the world lost Sue Mecham, a dear friend and loyal advocate for Catholic education. Sue's hard work and dedication as Fulcrum's Managing Director helped the organization flourish. Her ability to connect with people and to bring them together for a higher purpose enriched so many lives and was a true blessing to Fulcrum and to countless Catholic schools throughout the Archdiocese of Seattle. Working closely with board members, key stakeholders, and staff, Sue planted the seeds for the Uplift campaign.

Thank you, Sue. Your spirit and generosity guided Fulcrum to where it is now. You shall always be remembered and missed.

Managing Director, 2013-2015

BISHOP FRANK SCHUSTER has been a part of the Catholic school community in Washington State his entire life. Bishop Schuster attended Kennedy Catholic High School, where his father was principal for more than 20 years. He then went on to study at the University of Washington, where he earned a B.A. in psychology and spent most of his time at the Newman Center in peer ministry. After graduating, Bishop Schuster attended Mundelein Seminary in Chicago, where he received his Bachelor of Sacred Theology and his Master of Divinity. In addition to serving the Archdiocese of Seattle as an auxiliary bishop, Bishop Schuster will continue to serve as pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Parish in Federal Way.

KRISTIN DIXON has served as the superintendent for Catholic schools since 2017. Kristin began her career in Catholic education as a middle school teacher at St. Monica School, before moving to All Saints School. She accepted a position as the vice principal of All Saints and later became principal of Our Lady of Guadalupe School. Kristin expanded her leadership role by becoming the assistant superintendent for curriculum and professional development in 2013. As a school administrator and a leader of the Office for Catholic Schools team, Kristin has long been a supporter of the Fulcrum Foundation's mission to increase access to Catholic education. Her guidance and leadership in the Archdiocese of Seattle have been a blessing.

The Archbishop's Award

Presented each year at the Celebration of Light, the Archbishop's Award recognizes outstanding benefactors of Catholic schools. The award affirms that our schools remain viable and thrive thanks to the generosity of those who support them.

Catholic School Teachers, Staff, and Administrators 2022 Archbishop Award Recipients

When the COVID-19 pandemic hit in 2020, no one knew what lay ahead. Through the uncertainty and fear, Catholic school educators, staff, and administrators never hesitated. Instead, they rolled up their sleeves and got to work.

Over the past two years, Catholic school teachers innovated new ways to keep students engaged in learning, whether they were at home, in a hybrid model, or in person. Staff members developed new safety protocols to keep all members of the school community healthy. Administrators worked tirelessly to keep their school communities vital and strong, despite the distance and the difficulty.

We cannot thank these heroes enough for what they have done. Catholic education changes lives. This year's Archbishop's Awardees are the ones who make that happen.

From all of us, thank you.

Faculty & Staff of Catholic Schools

Thank you for playing a critical role in the education and value formation of our children.

Over the past two years you have gone above and beyond with your caring and creativity,
truly modeling our Catholic values.

Congratulations!
